

TOP TEN REASONS YOU SHOULD APPLY TO BE A CAI VISITING SCHOLAR

10. You get to live in a town known for its high quality of living, affordable housing, and great outdoor recreation.¹
9. You get an edited book out of the deal, and
8. CAI Visiting Scholar volumes get reviewed in major journals.
7. You get to interact with stimulating colleagues and students in CAI and Anthropology (<http://www.anthro.siuc.edu/>).
6. You invite who you want to participate in the VS Conference.
5. You teach ONE thematic seminar during the year, and
4. The course is related to your research.
3. You have lots of time to write job letters, and
2. CAI Visiting Scholars have GREAT success on the job market.²

And, the NUMBER ONE reason why you should apply to be a CAI Visiting Scholar...

1. You get to RESEARCH and WRITE for 11 months... a luxury you will never have again once you land your dream job!

READ THE OFFICIAL POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
FOR THE CAI VISITING SCHOLAR AT
<http://www.cai.siuc.edu/vsprogram.html>

¹In a 2006 study that assessed the quality of small-city life, Carbondale, Illinois, ranked in the top 11% of the 577 micropolitan areas evaluated (Source: <http://www.bizjournals.com/dreamtowns>).

²Nine out of ten CAI Visiting Scholars obtain a full-time, continuing position within two years of completing their tenure here at SIUC.

